

Carpenter's Pantomimic Ballet Charms

By Sylvester Rawling.

JOHN ALDEN CARPENTER'S pantomimic ballet, "The Birthday of the Infanta," after a story by Oscar Wilde, led a double bill at the Lexington Theatre yesterday afternoon at a special performance by the Chicago Opera Company for the benefit of the Society for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis. Robert Edmond Jones designed the scenery and costumes, which were appropriate and fetching, and Adolph Bolm, by courtesy of Mr. Gatti, staged the piece and acted the principal part. The plot is simple. In honor of the day the Infanta is surprised by exhibitions of juggling and grotesqueries that include a mock bull fight, and a wild dance by Pedro, who is deformed. To him the Infanta throws her scarf, as a token of love he thinks, but when he sees his misshapen face and form in the mirror he dances himself to death. For this Mr. Carpenter has provided music that fits, a bit nebulous, perhaps, after the manner of modern French composers, but splashed with characteristic Spanish rhythms. Exotic music! Nothing there is, as there should be, in the first scene, while a pathetically tragic note is sounded in the second. Ruth Page was a lovely picture as the Infanta and Mr. Bolm, as Pedro, showed himself once more a master of his art. Altogether the performance was excellent. A large and socially distinguished audience called Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Jones, Mr. Bolm and Mr. Haselmann, the conductor, before the curtain many times.

Ravel's sprightly musical setting of the daring "L'Heure Espagnole," performed earlier in the season, with its effective cast of Yvonne Gall, Magnat, Defreux, Cotterell and Warnery followed.

"Hamlet," with Titta Ruffo in the name part, the magnet, crowded the house in the evening. There was a lot of enthusiasm after his singing of the drinking song. The cast was the same as at the previous performance.

direction of Mr. Papi, was an excellent one. It was Mr. Werrenrath's first appearance this season with the company. He was Valentin and he sang well.

"L'Oracolo" and "Cleopatra's Night" were presented in the evening. Greille Harrold was Win-San-Lay in Zanol's gripping little tragedy, which gave Morran Kingston a chance to impersonate Melanion in Mr. Hadley's opera. He sang and acted well.

Otherwise the casts of both operas were familiar—Scott, Dider, L'Angelo, Audito, Florence Easton and Cecil Arden in the first, Mr. Morran-Kingston conducting, and Frances Alda, Jeanne Gordon and Marie Tiffany in the second, Mr. Papi conducting.

Mme. Alda's Cleopatra now is more commanding, both vocally and histrionically, than at the premiere performance.

"Isba," the picture in three scenes of Russian peasant life, with its devotional and folk songs, and its dances, began an engagement at the Manhattan Opera House last night and continued to charm. Serge Borowsky has an admirable little company under his direction.

Mabel Garrison, whose lovely voice will be missing from the Metropolitan Opera Company for the rest of the season, gave a recital at Carnegie Hall yesterday afternoon. She was warmly welcomed by a host of admirers and she sang at her best, which means a lot. In Haydn's "The Sailor's Song," Erich Wolf's "Fairy Tales," Brahms' "Brighter Far is now My Slumber," and Hugo Wolf's "The Water Sprite," she was especially happy. Besides, there were groups of old and modern French songs and modern English songs. George Siemmon was her accompanist at the piano.

The Importance of Cleansing Your System

THERE are so many germs still lurking in the air—and so many cases of illness—that it is absolutely necessary to use every precaution to maintain your health. One of the most important preventive measures you can take is to cleanse your intestinal tract regularly—to eliminate any germs that may have gotten there through your nose or mouth.

PARTOLA—"The Doctor in Candy Form"—is an ideal laxative and internal antiseptic. Partola not only helps to clear, refresh and regulate the stomach and bowels, but thru its antiseptic action tends to remove poisonous waste matters and disease germs from the digestive system. Partola is a sweet peppermint candy, delicious to eat and equally effective for every member of your family. 25c, 50c and $1.00 Boxes at all drug-gists.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it
Darkens so Naturally
Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to give color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it assumes its original color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

Influenza Precautions

Don't get excited when you catch cold and have symptoms of influenza. Take things as easy as you can. Food for your doctor and take a dose of a good vegetable laxative, such as Dr. Carter's K. & K. Tea or Laxative King.

While waiting for the doctor apply Mustarine on throat and chest. This is good advice, as any druggist will tell you, for lozenges, stopping the action and pills that may be present in the throat, produce inflammation.

Doctors prescribe Mustarine for tonsillitis, sore throat, diphtheria, influenza and colds. Apply it freely. It is far better than a mustard plaster, because it is always ready for instant use and of course much kinder. Be sure it's Mustarine. 30 cents.

MUSTARINE
IN THE YELLOW BOX

NUXATED IRON
Increases strength of delicate, nervous, run-down people in two weeks time in many instances. Used and highly endorsed by former United States Senators and Members of Congress, well-known physicians and former Public Health officials. Ask your doctor or druggist about it.
